THE MASTER CAR BUILDERS

Concluded Their Session Yesterday at Old Point Comfort.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Secretary Cloud Resigned and Will Go to Europe For Westinghouse Air Brake Co.—J. W. Taylor the New Secretary—Invitations For Next Convention—Master Mechanics Will Also Choose a New Secretary.

The Master Car Builders' Association yesterday concluded its thirty-third annual meeting, the closing session opening at 10 a. m. The report of the committee on M. C. B. couplers was taken up and carefully discussed by sections.

Various other technical topics were discussed and then the convention proceeded to the election of officers.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

The Committee on Nominations for officers reported as follows:

For President—C. A. Schroyer.

For First Vice-President—J. T. Chamberlain.

For Second Vice-President—J. J. Hennessy.

For Third Vice-President—W. J. Robertson.

For Treasurer—C. W. Demarest.

For members of the Executive Committee to fill vacancies caused by the expired term of three members—S. P. Bush, A. E. Mitchell, William Garstang.

On motion the ballot of the entire convention was cast for the above nominees, and they were declared elected.

These were the former officers of the association and their unanimous election is a most gratifying evidence of the appreciation of the association of the careful and satisfactory manner in which they have handled the affairs of the Master Car Builders' Association.

After the election President Schroyer rose in response to a call for a speech, and in a few well chosen words thanked the association for the honor conferred upon him, and promised to give the office his best efforts. The convention then adjourned and the Executive Committee then opened its session.

NEW SECRETARY CHOSEN.

Mr. John W. Cloud having declined to continue in the office of secretary of the association, the Executive Committee discussed the matter of his successor, and the honor of this exacting position was conferred on Mr. J. W. Taylor, of Chicago, who has been in the office of Mr. Cloud for the past eight years.

The new secretary brings to his office a wide and deep acquaintance with railroad matters, and it is the general opinion that the choice of the committee is a most happy one.

Mr. John W. Cloud, the retiring secretary, has held the office of secretary of the Master Car Builders' Association for the past ten years. For eight years he has been the Western representative of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, and has proved such a valuable man to the company that he will be sent to Europe next month to take charge of the London office of this great company. From this office is handled all of the European business of the company, extending over the British Isles, France, Germany and elsewhere.

At present Mr. Cloud is also secretary of the Master Mechanics' Association. He will resign this position also at the meeting of the association next week, and who his successor will be is not known. It may be that his successor as secretary of the Master Car Builders' Association, Mr. Taylor, will be chosen to succeed him in the Master Mechanics' Association, but this is not known. Until the secretaryships of both associations were united in Mr. Cloud, they had been held by distinct persons, so a precedent exists for action in either way.

JOINT SESSIONS.

The matter of joint sessions with the Master Mechanics' Association was referred to the Executive Committee to discuss the proposition with the Executive Committee of the Master Mechanics' Association.

THE NEXT SESSION.

The next session will be held in June 1900, but the place and exact time are left with the Executive Committee for decision. This committee will notify members six months before the date of the meeting.

Various cities would like to secure the meeting for 1900.

Among the letters of invitation received was one from Gov. Pligree, of Michigan, inviting the association to come to the City of the Straits. The charms of this delightful city as a summer convention place, with its beautiful parks and hospitable citizens, will be well considered. Other places that sent invitations were Saratoga, Cleveland and one from parties in the Thousand Islands.

LEAVING GRADUALLY.

The members of the association began to leave for their homes last night. Others will go to-morrow, while many will remain in attendance on the meeting of the Master Mechanics' Association, which convenes on Monday next, and will continue for three days. Those in attendance have greatly enjoyed their stay at Old Point Comfort and

CONVENTION NOTES.

Joseph Nimmo, Jr., the well known statistician and writer on railway topics, is among the distinguished men at Old Point.

The annual ball of the Master Car Builders' Association was held last night at the Chamberlin. The grand march began at 9 p. m. During the intervals between the dances, there was choice music in the pavilion, rendered by Reeves' American Band.

Major D. W. Reeves, of Reeves' American Band, played during the session a "Convention March," dedicated to the Master Car Builders and Railway Master Mechanics of America. This is a two step and was the introduction piece at each concert.

The exhibit of the Pressed Steel Car Company at the east end of the Hygeia is one that will particularly interest many. It is composed entirely of cars that have been in active use. The essential features are a designed one car and a P. B. & L. E. hopper. They have seen constant service since they were built several years ago, but are still in good condition.

THE GALE JEWELRY CO.

The Prairie in Baltimore.

Yesterday's Baltimore Sun says: "Yesterday morning the United States cruiser Prairie, Commander Morris R. Mackenzie commanding arrived from Norfolk and anchored off Fort McHenry. The Prairie was ordered to Baltimore to take on board the Maryland Naval Militia for a cruise of eight days, during which they will be given practical experience at sea in gunnery and other necessary drills in line with the new navy."

Lee Rifle Reorganization.

There will be a meeting Monday evening, in the Lee Rifle's room in the Armory, of all persons interested in the reorganization of the company. Those of our citizens who may be interested in military affairs are advised to hear this meeting in mind. It will be called to order at 8:30 o'clock.

Marriage Announcement.

Mrs. N. J. M. Smith has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Eva, to Mr. Enoch Dennis Forebee, on Wednesday afternoon, the 25th instant, at 6 o'clock. The ceremony will be solemnized in Providence M. E. Church, in Princess Anne county.

Mrs. Hancel Much Better.

Mrs. Hancel, wife of Judge Allen R. Hancel, whose arm and wrist was painfully injured by being thrown from the seat of the vehicle in which she was riding with her husband Thursday, on account of the wheel of the vehicle being caught in the rail of the street car track at the corner of Botetourt and York streets, was very much better yesterday. The greatest injury to her arm was the tearing of a portion of the flesh from it.

CENSUS SUPERVISORS.

THE VIRGINIA DISTRICTS DIVIDED ON POLITICAL LINES.

The Richmond Dispatch of yesterday published the following special telegram from Washington:

About 3 o'clock this afternoon Colonel Brady received a telegram which settled the differences in the delayed census supervisorship matter, and enabled him to complete his slate. The Republicans selected the First, Third, Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth districts, leaving to the Democrats the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh. Senator Daniel and Chairman Agnew then went to the Census Bureau and submitted the names of the candidates for appointment as Supervisors as follows: REPUBLICANS.

First District—Dr. George P. Scarborough, of Accomac.

Third District—Dr. Sneed, of King William county.

Eighth District—R. R. Campbell, of Warrenton.

Ninth District—George W. Blankenship, of Jonesville, Lee county.

Tenth District—R. T. Hubbard, of Buckingham county.

DEMOCRATS.

Second District—No name given.

Fourth District—Frank R. Lassiter, of Petersburg.

Fifth District—C. M. Hurt, of Franklin county.

Sixth District—C. C. Carrington, of South Boston.

Seventh District—Stock, of Winchester, Va.

The Democratic Congressmen who are favored are W. A. Young, in the Second District; Sidney P. Epps, in the Fourth; C. A. Swanson, in the Fifth; Peter J. Otey, in the Sixth, and James Hays in the Seventh. Representatives Jones, Lamb and Rixey are severely left.

It is agreed and ordered by Director Morrill that the supervisors in all of the districts shall appoint an equal number of clerks and enumerators from each political party. This will create a curious political hodge-podge in the State.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mr. Dennis Kelly, of Lambert's Point, accompanied by Mr. Wm. Farrel and Miss Katie Farrel, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. Suroclair, of Philadelphia, Pa., greatly enjoyed a social dance at the Hygeia, Old Point, Thursday night, the 15th instant.

Colonel William Lamb returned from Philadelphia yesterday morning.

Rev. W. C. Vaden, presiding elder of the Portsmouth district, Virginia Conference, M. E. Church, South, was in the city yesterday. He reports the work in his district in a prosperous condition.

Miss Jean D. Cabler left last night via the Bay Line for a short trip North.

Dr. H. L. Davis, of Havana, Cuba, arrived in Norfolk yesterday.

Mrs. James N. Peabworth, accompanied by her son, James N. Peabworth, Jr., is on a two weeks' visit to relatives and friends in Sligo, N. C.

The steamer Charlotte was loaded to the guards last night with local freight agents en route to Baltimore. From that city they disperse to all points of the East and West.

Mr. C. J. Smith and Mrs. Peter Smith leave this morning for Kansas City, via the Chesapeake and Ohio, on a pleasure trip.

Mr. A. L. McClellan have removed to their cottage at Virginia Beach.

Mr. John D. Couper and family have gone to Willoughby Beach, where they will occupy their cottage during the heated term.

City street pavers, under the supervision of the Board of Street, Sewer and Drain Commissioners, began laying vitrified brick on Bermuda street yesterday.

Captain J. A. Welch, formerly of this city, but now a prominent business man of Bramwell, W. Va., is here looking after his property interests.

Mr. Alexander B. Irvine has been appointed assistant ticket agent in the Norfolk and Western's Granby street office, vice Mr. A. Linwood Nelms, Jr., resigned.

Miss Betty Greene, of Greenville, N. C., is visiting her brother at the home of Dr. Emerson Land, Oceana, Va.

Attention is called to the advertisement in to-day's issue of a change in the schedule of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, to go in effect to-morrow (Sunday).

Fancy Typewriting.

Mr. Charles H. McGurran, of Kalamazoo, Mich., the champion type-writer of the world, gave an exhibition of his speed and fancy writing yesterday before the students of the Southern Business College here.

Mr. McGurran gave an exhibition of "invisible writing," with his eyes shut and a handkerchief over the key-board, which was wonderful to behold. He has given several exhibitions of his skill while here, and has attracted around him a great number of people who are interested in rapid type-writing.

Stocking Bargain

We've filled our Granby street window with these unusually good stockings for ladies, and we would like you to take a look at them.

They are imported—made in Germany of a super grade of lisle thread.

They are as black as the raven's wing—beautifully finished.

They are prettily drop-stitched.

They have doubly woven white heels and toes and extra elastic white tops.

Hundreds of dozens have been sold by us at 37½c. a pair—3 pair for $1.

That was their price up to yesterday.

It is quite possible that you have bought some at this price and, no doubt, you considered them good value.
